Middle East Association and Eversheds LLP Present:

Doing Business In Iraq

Tuesday 26th June, 16:30-18:30

The Middle East Association, in partnership with Eversheds LLP, is holding a seminar in London entitled “Doing Business In Iraq: Establishing A Presence And Staying Within The Law”.

Iraq's recent history has been dominated by conflicts and economic sanctions. But the country is on the rise once more and there are many investment opportunities available. How can you make the most of these opportunities by avoiding major pitfalls, working within local laws and understanding the business culture?

This free seminar will give you the information and ideas you need. Aimed at in-house lawyers, directors, business advisers and government officials, this is your chance to get advice direct from our experts on the ground.

Our speaker line-up includes: Michael Hodges, Chairman, MEA and Business Development Director MENA Region, HSBC; John Kemkers, Partner, Eversheds; Tawfiq Tabaa, Partner, Sanad Law Group in Association with Eversheds; and, William Wakeham, CEO, AAIB Insurance Brokers.

The seminar will cover the crucial legal areas in relation to doing business in Iraq. You will also take part in a Q&A session to get the answers you need and network with participants who share your interest in Iraq.

The areas we will cover include:

- foreign investment
- company registration
- agency and distribution laws
- enforcing contracts in Iraq
- litigation/arbitration

For those unable to make this event in London, “Doing Business in Iraq” will also be taking place in Dubai on 16th June. Please contact Victoria Toy at Eversheds for more details.

There are a limited number of places available for this event. If you would like to attend, please return the application form overleaf to Chris Moses at the Middle East Association by the closing date of Friday 1st June. Successful applicants will be informed on Tuesday 5th June of event location and details.
